

FACILITY MANAGEMENT ENGAGEMENT DAY 2025

As part of BINA 2025 at ICW, Facility Management Engagement Day goes beyond a traditional conference—it's a dynamic platform for industry leaders, innovators, and businesses to exchange expertise, explore best practices, and unlock new opportunities in facility management.

This event brings together facility managers, technology providers, service experts, and decision-makers to discuss the latest trends, innovations, and challenges in facility management, while connecting businesses for strategic collaborations.
